What Our Educational Partners Do

- Provide quality educational programs to support academia and career growth.
- Educate taxpayers on tax credits and deductions for which they qualify.
- Offer free tax preparation.
- Assist taxpayers in building financial security.

SPEC provides the VITA Program at no cost!

What Students Say About VITA

“VITA gave me the chance to work with clients that were not aware of the different resources IRS provides to the public. It also brings like minded people together for similar goals; such as getting prepared for the workforce.”

Who Can Sponsor a VITA Site?

- Faculty, department chairs, administrators and staff.
- Student activity clubs and organizations.
- Professional societies.
- Fraternities and sororities.
- Alumni associations.

VITA Program Types

Traditional VITA – IRS-certified volunteers prepare electronically filed returns face-to-face with taxpayers at their college or university location.

Virtual VITA – Tax preparation services provided in a virtual environment to taxpayers remotely where face-to-face activities are not performed during the tax preparation process.

Facilitated Self-Assistance (FSA) - FSA empowers the taxpayer to prepare their own return. The volunteer acts as a tax coach or “facilitator”, answering the taxpayer’s in-scope questions as they complete and file their return.
